

I am still getting calls from vendors and agencies even though I put my name on the do-not-phone-list. I would like strict regulations and high fines in every state so as to discourage telemarketers from violating my rights to privacy.